

Frequently Asked Questions

What is National Forest Week™? National Forest Week™ is an annual celebration of the National Forest and Grasslands System and all it provides and has to offer. This year's theme is "Forest Mode."

When does National Forest Week™ take place? National Forest Week™ is celebrated the second full week of July each year. National Forest Week™ 2023 will take place July 10-16.

Where will National Forest Week™ celebrations take place? National Forest Week™ is celebrated across the country. All Americans are invited to join the National Forest Foundation (NFF) in celebrating these spectacular public lands. The NFF is also hosting two in-person celebrations for National Forest Week™ in partnership with Filson. If you are in the area, come celebrate National Forests and Grasslands with us!

- Kick-Off Party in New York City, NY on Monday, July 10 from 4 to 7 pm ET
- Closing Celebration in Seattle, WA on Saturday, July 15 from 11 am to 4 pm PT

How can I get involved? There are so many ways to get involved! Here are a couple to get started:

- Post on social media with the hashtag #NationalForestWeek. National Forest Week™ wouldn't happen without a community of supporters. Share your National Forest stories and experiences on social media with the hashtag #NationalForestWeek.
- Submit a photo to the National Forest Week™ Photo Contest. The NFF needs your help to showcase diverse and unique National Forests across the country. Winners in each category will be recognized and receive great prizes!
- Spread the word. Reach out to your friends and encourage them to join you in celebrating National Forest Week™.

Where can I find updated information about National Forest Week™? Nationalforestweek.org has everything you need to know about events, the photo contest, and other ways to get involved!